Elijah recognized the voice of God not in the strong and heavy wind; not in the earthquake, and not in the fire, but in a tiny whispering sound. May we find enough quiet in our clamorous world to hear His voice and discern what He is calling us to do and be.

RELIGIOUS FORMATION VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

We are in need of catechists and catechist assistants for Grades 1-9 for the fall 2017-18 school year. Catechists are those who let the Word of God echo through their lives and teaching. They do more than simply "teach" religion; they share their faith and help young people learn how to apply and live their faith in their daily lives. Our Religious Formation program cannot succeed without the participation and dedication from volunteers like you. All lesson plans are provided. If you hear God's call inviting you to this very special ministry, please contact us.

PASTORAL CARE

MINISTRY TO THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

Walking on Water. How familiar is that sentence! For those who were able to see the movie, "The Shack", we had a glimpse of what that might have looked like. But our Bible story tells us that Peter's fear caused him to doubt, and he immediately began to sink in the water. Yet Jesus rescued him. Isn't it easy for us to doubt when things don't go as we have planned and we lose heart, we lose courage? Jesus wants us to come to Him, have abiding faith in Him and call on Him in our trials. He will not abandon us. We have to keep practicing the presence of God in our lives.

Our Parish Homebound Ministry is available to all who cannot come to Mass due to recovery from surgery, acute or chronic illness and advanced age. Eucharistic Ministers visit each week, bring the Parish weekly Bulletin, offer prayers and give Communion. Call the Pastoral Care number above to set up an appointment for a visit.

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is available by calling the Pastoral Care Office number above or the Main Office number on the front of the Bulletin to set up an appointment for a visit. The homebound can receive this Sacrament every year or when facing surgery, or as preparing to go Home to the Father.

MINISTRY TO THE BEREAVED

As we journey in the sea of bereavement, we often feel like we are sinking in our pain. Jesus invites Peter to walk on water to meet Him but in his fear, his faith is shattered in the reality of life. Jesus wants us to keep our eyes on Him. With Him, no matter where we are in our grief, there is a hand to reach out to us. When we listen, His gentle voice inside of us says, "It is I. Take heart, have no fear," as He reaches for our hand and pulls us into the boat of promise, faith and healing.

Our next Bereavement Support Group meeting is Sunday, August 13th, at 12:30pm in the Resource Room.

How is Summer affecting your grief work? Sharing with others who are grieving is healing. All are welcome.
Peace be with you. Cindy Novak
