SAMARITANS
973-895-4224 – Ext 109

tmccconnell@resurrectionparishnj.org

See below for a “thank you” note from The Fresh Air Fund. Resurrection’s YES group helps host a picnic for Fresh Air Fund children and their host families in our area each summer. The Samaritans’ ministry financially contributes to the YES group’s efforts.

Thank you for your gift to benefit The Fresh Air Fund’s Friendly Town Program. We are truly grateful for your commitment to our organization.

Since 1877, The Fresh Air Fund has touched the lives of more than 1.8 million children. We continue to rely on friends and the generosity of people like you to make our programs possible. Each child hopes for the opportunity to enjoy summer adventures and new learning experiences with volunteer host families or at one of our five camps in Fishkill, New York.

Swimming in a lake, running barefoot through the grass, milking a cow, gazing at the stars – your generous support makes these simple but memorable experiences possible for children from low-income communities. Your contribution also enables us to keep connected to our Fresh Air youngsters during the academic year, with tutoring, mentoring, and educational programming.

The only thing more fleeting than summer is childhood, and being able to enjoy it is truly a gift. Once again, on behalf of the Fresh Air children and their grateful families, thank you so much for your support.

Sincerely,

Fatima Shama, Executive Director

MINISTRY TO THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

Being apart from the Community of Faith at Mass on Sunday is a separation from the readings, the Homily and the Eucharist. We can fill that time with many things so unrelated to that hour of prayer that we become blind and deaf to the message that is available to us. We are alienated from the Good News. Mass is available on TV and it is good to make that part of our Sunday morning. That connection, along with the visit from a Eucharistic Minister who brings Communion, opens our eyes and our ears to reconnect us to the saving power of Jesus and our relationship with Him. If you have a loved one at home or know someone who cannot get out to Mass, call the number above to schedule a visit from one of our Eucharistic Ministers. Fr. Tarantino is available to bring the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

MINISTRY TO THE BEREAVED

A significant loss in our lives brings pain that can be unbearable at times. Routines are changed forever and it is difficult to function at times. We find ourselves continually looking for the “normal” that used to be, waiting for that phone call or picking up the phone, only to be hit with the painful reminder that things have changed and we wonder what to do with ourselves! It is good to remember prayer at these times for that brings comfort, like a shoulder to lean on, an arm to hold us up. God knows our pain and that connection to Him alleviates the burden for a minute so we can heal a little more.

Please join us at 12:30 on Sunday, September 13th in the Resource Room at our Bereavement Support Group meeting. Come and listen. Come and tell your story. Sharing with others helps in the healing process. It is a safe and confidential environment in which to express your grief and the difficulties encountered in learning to live in a new way. Refreshments are available.

Peace be with you.

Cindy Novak
